

Pets

For the best interests and welfare of all Howe Library patrons, animals, except service animals assisting a disabled person, may not enter the Howe Library building or be tied up on library property.

*Created September 2008, reviewed April 2013
This document is to be reviewed by the library director every five years.*