

Margaret M Sheehan

Artist Statement

I am an artist who transforms fabric into art quilts. The materials I choose speak to me through color, texture, and design. In constant dialog with my work, a swirling energy of spirals, playful stitching and poetic shapes emerge.

While designing, I listen to the conversation. Each piece is unique in the direction it takes me. The conversation continues throughout the process to bring the piece to a place that is both powerful and exciting.